

POSITION DESCRIPTION

PNG Maritime College

CB2539 - Lecturer - Marine Engineering

Reporting to the Senior Lecturer Engineering, this position is responsible for the preparation, delivery and support of effective high quality training in Mechanics, Thermodynamics, Naval Architecture, Electrical Practice, plus Engineering knowledge, theory and practice, Safety and associated subjects to students attending the College in the Engineering Cadet, Engineer Grade 5,4, 3 and 2 and other courses as directed and is required to observe all processes contained in the College Quality Assurance Manual.

The position also assist and provides leadership in the efficient and effective operation of the Department of Engineering and the College as a whole..

Essential Competencies

- Hold a current Marine Engineer Class 1(FG) Certificate of Competency.
- Be mature/possibly recently retired from the sea, with extensive practical seagoing experience and be keen to impart your accumulated knowledge on a younger generation of seafarer.
- Ideally have working experience in a developing/multicultural environment.
- Able to prove a track record of professionalism, leadership, flexibility and self starting skills. Good oral and written communication skills in English are essential.

Applications close on 29 June 2009

To apply for this position:

- Download and complete the Application Form from <http://www.vanguardpng.com>.
- Email the application to admin@vanguardpng.com together with a copy of your CV in MS Word format.

Note: Do not include copies of any other documents. You will be asked to provide the originals of certificates etc if you are selected for Interview