

POSITION DESCRIPTION

National Fisheries Authority

RR2435 - IT Systems Administrator

Working under the direction of the Manager, Information Communication Technology, the Database Programmer/Analyst will be responsible for the various technologies managed by the I.T department. This position will focus on the administration of the NFA network infrastructure, inclusive of desktop PC's, servers, network equipment, notebooks and software applications, ensuring a positive and functional team and independent work environment by maintaining a respectful interaction with other staff.

Essential Competencies

-
- Bachelors Degree in Computer Science, or related Degree, with 2000/ 2003 MCSE and four or more years of systems/ network experience
- Several years experience with Windows 2000/2003 Server platforms, with an emphasis on Active Directory, and a strong background in Exchange 2000/2003 messaging system.
- Solid knowledge of LAN/WAN configurations including Cisco routers and switches, internet firewalls and wireless technology. Experience in establishing and maintaining database systems, SQL Server ,as well as supporting telephone systems such as NEC and Ericsons
- Exceptional customer service skills, a strong work ethic with the ability to work both independently and /or in a team environment. Above average organizational, communication, and problem solving skills, with a willingness to learn, and to "think outside the box".

Applications close on 18 May 2009

To apply for this position:

- Download and complete the Application Form from <http://www.vanguardpng.com>.
- Email the application to admin@vanguardpng.com together with a copy of your CV in MS Word format.

Note: Do not include copies of any other documents. You will be asked to provide the originals of certificates etc if you are selected for Interview